If this section 214 review results in determination of ineligibility, you will have an opportunity to appeal the decision. Also, if the final determination concludes that only certain members of your family are eligible for assistance, your family may be eligible for proration of assistance. That means that when assistance is available, a reduced amount may be provided for your family, based on the number of members who are eligible.

If assistance becomes available and the other aspects of your eligibility review show that you are eligible for housing assistance, it may be provided to you if at least one member of your household has submitted the required documentation. Following verification of all the documentation submitted by all family members, assistance may be adjusted depending on the immigration status verified. You will be contacted as soon as we have further information regarding your eligibility for assistance.

- 3. Form HUD-9887-A (to be signed by the Applicant or Tenant and Housing Owner)

Verification of Information Provided by Applicants and Tenants of Assisted Housing

What Verification Involves

To receive housing assistance, applicants and tenants who are at least 18 years of age and each family head, spouse, or co-head regardless of age must provide the owner or management agent (O/A) or public housing agency (PHA) with certain information specified by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

To make sure that the assistance is used properly, Federal laws require that the information you provide be verified. This information is verified in two ways:

1. HUD, O/As, and PHAs may verify the information you provide by checking with the records kept by certain public agencies (e.g., Social Security Administration (SSA), State agency that keeps wage and unemployment compensation claim information, and the Department of Health and Human Services' (HHS) National Directory of New Hires (NDNH) database that stores wage, new hires, and unemployment compensation). HUD (only) may verify information covered in your tax returns from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS). You give your consent to the release of this information by signing form HUD-9887. Only HUD, O/As, and PHAs can receive information authorized by this form.
2. The O/A must verify the information that is used to determine your eligibility and the amount of rent you pay. You give your consent to the release of this information by signing the form HUD-9887, the form HUD-9887-A, and the individual verification and consent forms that apply to you. Federal laws limit the kinds of information the O/A can receive about you. The amount of income you receive helps to determine the amount of rent you will pay. The O/A will verify all of the sources of income that you report. There are certain allowances that reduce the income used in determining tenant rents.

Example: Mrs. Anderson is 62 years old. Her age qualifies her for a medical allowance. Her annual income will be adjusted because of this allowance. Because Mrs. Anderson's medical expenses will help determine the amount of rent she pays, the O/A is required to verify any medical expenses that she reports.

Example: Mr. Harris does not qualify for the medical allowance because he is not at least 62 years of age and he is not handicapped or disabled. Because he is not eligible for the medical allowance, the amount of his medical expenses does not change the amount of rent he pays. Therefore, the O/A cannot ask Mr. Harris anything about his medical expenses and cannot verify with a third party about any medical expenses he has.

Customer Protections

Information received by HUD is protected by the Federal Privacy Act. Information received by the O/A or the PHA is subject to State privacy laws. Employees of HUD, the O/A, and the PHA are subject to penalties for using these consent forms improperly. You do not have to sign the form HUD-9887, the form HUD-9887-A, or the individual verification consent forms when they are given to you at your certification or recertification interview. You may take them home with you to read or to discuss with a third party of your choice. The O/A will give you another date when you can return to sign these forms.

If you cannot read and/or sign a consent form due to a disability, the O/A shall make a reasonable accommodation in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Such accommodations may include: home visits when the applicant's or tenant's disability prevents him/her from coming to the office to complete the forms; the applicant or tenant authorizing another person to sign on his/her behalf; and for persons with visual impairments, accommodations may include providing the forms in large script or braille or providing readers.

If an adult member of your household, due to extenuating circumstances, is unable to sign the form HUD-9887 or the individual verification forms on time, the O/A may document the file as to the reason for the delay and the specific plans to obtain the proper signature as soon as possible.

The O/A must tell you, or a third party which you choose, of the findings made as a result of the O/A verifications authorized by your consent. The O/A must give you the opportunity to contest such findings in accordance with HUD Handbook 4350.3 Rev. 1. However, for information received under the form HUD-9887 or form HUD-9887-A, HUD, the O/A, or the PHA, may inform you of these findings.

O/As must keep tenant files in a location that ensures confidentiality. Any employee of the O/A who fails to keep tenant information confidential is subject to the enforcement provisions of the State Privacy Act and is subject to enforcement actions by HUD. Also, any applicant or tenant affected by negligent disclosure or improper use of information may bring civil action for damages, and seek other relief, as may be appropriate, against the employee.

HUD-9887/A requires the O/A to give each household a copy of the Fact Sheet, and forms HUD-9887, HUD-9887-A along with appropriate individual consent forms. The package you will receive will include the following documents:

1. HUD-9887/A Fact Sheet: Describes the requirement to verify information provided by individuals who apply for housing assistance. This fact sheet also describes consumer protections under the verification process.
2. Form HUD-9887: Allows the release of information between government agencies.
3. Form HUD-9887-A: Describes the requirement of third party verification along with consumer protections.
4. Individual verification consents: Used to verify the relevant information provided by applicants/tenants to determine their eligibility and level of benefits.

Consequences for Not Signing the Consent Forms

If you fail to sign the form HUD-9887, the form HUD-9887-A, or the individual verification forms, this may result in your assistance being denied (for applicants) or your assistance being terminated (for tenants). See further explanation on the forms HUD-9887 and 9887-A.

If you are an applicant and are denied assistance for this reason, the O/A must notify you of the reason for your rejection and give you an opportunity to appeal the decision.

If you are a tenant and your assistance is terminated for this reason, the O/A must follow the procedures set out in the Lease. This includes the opportunity for you to meet with the O/A.

This law authorizes HHS to disclose to the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) information in the NDNH portion of the "Location and Collection System of Records" for the purposes of verifying employment and income of individuals participating in specified programs and, after removal of personal identifiers, to conduct analyses of the employment and income reporting of these individuals. Authority for Requiring Applicant's/Tenant's Consent to the Release of Information

Section 904 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988, as amended by section 903 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992. This law is found at 42 U.S.C. 3544.

In part, this law requires you to sign a consent form authorizing the Owner to request current or previous employers to verify salary and wage information pertinent to your eligibility or level of benefits.

In addition, HUD regulations (24 CFR 5.659, Family Information and Verification) require as a condition of receiving housing assistance that you must sign a HUD-approved release and consent authorizing any depository or private source of income to furnish such information that is necessary in determining your eligibility or level of benefits. This includes information that you have provided which will affect the amount of rent you pay. The information includes income and assets, such as salary, welfare benefits, and interest earned on savings accounts. They also include certain adjustments to your income, such as the allowances for dependents and for households whose heads or spouses are elderly handicapped, or disabled; and allowances for child care expenses, medical expenses, and handicap assistance expenses.

Purpose of Requiring Consent to the Release of Information

In signing this consent form, you are authorizing the Owner of the housing project to which you are applying for assistance to request information from a third party about you. HUD requires the housing owner to verify all of the information you provide that affects your eligibility and level of benefits to ensure that you are eligible for assisted housing benefits and that these benefits are set at the correct levels. Upon the request of the HUD office or the PHA (as Contract Administrator), the housing Owner may provide HUD or the PHA with the information you have submitted and the information the Owner receives under this consent.

Uses of Information to be Obtained

The individual listed on the verification form may request and receive the information requested by the verification, subject to the limitations of this form. HUD is required to protect the income information it obtains in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a. The Owner and the PHA are also required to protect the income information they obtain in accordance with any applicable state privacy law. Should the Owner receive information from a third party that is inconsistent with the information you have provided, the Owner is required to notify you in writing identifying the information believed to be incorrect. If this should occur, you will have the opportunity to meet with the Owner to discuss any discrepancies.

Who Must Sign the Consent Form

Each member of your household who is at least 18 years of age, and each family head, spouse or co-head, regardless of age must sign the relevant consent forms at the initial certification, at each recertification and at each interim certification, if applicable. In addition, when new adult members join the household and when members of the household become 18 years of age they must also sign the relevant consent forms.

Persons who apply for or receive assistance under the following programs must sign the relevant consent forms:

Rental Assistance Program (RAP)
Rent Supplement
Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments Programs (administered by the Office of Housing)
Section 202
Sections 202 and 811 PRAC
Section 202/162 PAC
Section 221(d)(3) Below Market Interest Rate
Section 236
HOPE 2 Home Ownership of Multifamily Units

Failure to Sign the Consent Form

Failure to sign any required consent form may result in the denial of assistance or termination of assisted housing benefits. If an applicant is denied assistance for this reason, the O/A must follow the notification procedures in Handbook 4350.3 Rev. 1. If a tenant is denied assistance for this reason, the O/A must follow the procedures set out in the lease.

Conditions

No action can be taken to terminate, deny, suspend or reduce the assistance your household receives based on information obtained about you under this consent until the O/A has independently 1) verified the information you have provided with respect to your eligibility and level of benefits and 2) with respect to income (including both earned and unearned income), the O/A has verified whether you actually have (or had) access to such income for your own use, and verified the period or periods when, or with respect to which you actually received such income, wages, or benefits.

A photocopy of the signed consent may be used to request the information authorized by your signature on the individual consent forms. This would occur if the O/A does not have another individual verification consent with an original signature and the O/A is required to send out another request for verification (for example, the third party fails to respond). If this happens, the O/A may attach a photocopy of this consent to a photocopy of the individual verification form that you sign. To avoid the use of photocopies, the O/A and the individual may agree to sign more than one consent for each type of verification that is needed. The O/A shall inform you, or a third party which you designate, of the findings made on the basis of information verified under this consent and shall give you an opportunity to contest such findings in accordance with Handbook 4350.3 Rev. 1.

The O/A must provide you with information obtained under this consent in accordance with State privacy laws.

If a member of the household who is required to sign the consent forms is unable to sign the required forms on time, due to extenuating circumstances, the O/A may document the file as to the reason for the delay and the specific plans to obtain the proper signature as soon as possible.

Individual consents to the release of information expire 15 months after they are signed. The O/A may use these individual consent forms during the 120 days preceding the certification period. The O/A may also use these forms during the certification period, but only in cases where the O/A receives information indicating that the information you have provided may be incorrect. Other uses are prohibited.

The O/A may not make inquiries into information that is older than 12 months unless he/she has received inconsistent information and has reason to believe that the information that you have supplied is incorrect. If this occurs, the O/A may obtain information within the last 5 years when you have received assistance.

I have read and understand this information on the purposes and uses of information that is verified and consent to the release of information for these purposes and uses.

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.

APPLYING FOR HUD HOUSING ASSISTANCE?

THINK ABOUT THIS...
IS FRAUD WORTH IT?

Do You Realize...

If you commit fraud to obtain assisted housing from HUD, you could be:

- Evicted from your apartment or house.
- Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received.
- Fined up to $10,000.
- Imprisoned for up to five years.
- Prohibited from receiving future assistance.
- Subject to State and local government penalties.

Do You Know...

You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that you provided false or misleading information.

The information you provide on housing assistance application and recertification forms will be checked. The local housing agency, HUD, or the Office of Inspector General will check the income and asset information you provide with other Federal, State, or local governments and with private agencies. Certifying false information is fraud.

So Be Careful!

When you fill out your application and yearly recertification for assisted housing from HUD make sure your answers to the questions are accurate and honest. You must include:

All sources of income and changes in income you or any members of your household receive, such as wages, welfare payments, social security and veterans' benefits, pensions, retirement, etc.

Any money you receive on behalf of your children, such as child support, AFDC payments, social security for children, etc.

Any increase in income, such as wages from a new job or an expected pay raise or bonus.

All assets, such as bank accounts, savings bonds, certificates of deposit, stocks, real estate, etc., that are owned by you or any member of your household.

(Important Notice for Hurricane Katrina and Hurricane Rita Evacuees: HUD's reporting requirements may be temporarily waived or suspended because of your circumstances. Contact the local housing agency before you complete the housing assistance application.)

Ask Questions

If you don't understand something on the application or recertification forms, always ask questions. It's better to be safe than sorry.

Watch Out for Housing Assistance Scams!

- Don't pay money to have someone fill out housing assistance application and recertification forms for you.
- Don't pay money to move up on a waiting list.
- Don't pay for anything that is not covered by your lease.
- Get a receipt for any money you pay.
- Get a written explanation if you are required to pay for anything other than rent (maintenance or utility charges).

RESIDENT SELECTION PLAN - SECTION 8 NEW CONSTRUCTION SUBSIDIZED RENTAL HOUSING

Apartment Community: MEADOWVIEW

INTRODUCTION: The procedures used for selection of residents shall be implemented in compliance with the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Handbook 4350.3, as amended, and all other applicable federal statutes and regulations.

NON-DISCRIMINATION: The management agent shall comply with all federal, state and local fair housing and civil rights laws and with all equal opportunity requirements as required by law, including without limitation HUD administrative procedures. Federal laws forbid discrimination based on race, color, creed, religion, sex, age, disability, familial status, or national origin. Discrimination against a particular social or economic class is also prohibited (for example: welfare recipients; single parent households, etc.) These requirements apply to all aspects of tenant relations including without limitation: accepting and processing applications, selecting residents from among eligible Applicants on the waiting list, assigning units, certifying and re-certifying eligibility for assistance, granting accommodation and terminating tenancies.

ELIGIBILITY FOR RENTAL ASSISTANCE: Applicants seeking rental assistance in subsidized rental developments must meet the following eligibility factors:

1. Household must meet eligibility criteria for the specific apartment community:
 - a. Family Apartment Communities do not restrict occupancy to a certain population.
 - b. Elderly Apartment Communities restrict occupancy to:
 - i) Elderly Households of two or more persons with at least one person who is 62 years of age or older;
 - ii) A Single Person who is 62 years of age or older;
 - iii) A household whose head, spouse or sole member is Disabled.
2. The household's annual income and assets must not exceed the applicable limits. Annual income is calculated in accordance with the Housing Opportunity Through Modernization Act (HOTMA), which includes new rules for what is considered income and what is excluded. A household will be considered ineligible for admission if their total net family assets exceed the statutory asset limit (currently $103,200, subject to annual adjustments).
3. The Applicant agrees to pay the portion of rent required by the subsidy program under which the Applicant will be admitted.
4. The unit must be the Family's only residence.
5. At the time of admission, the Applicant may not be receiving Section 8 assistance on another housing unit.
6. Household must meet citizenship or immigration status requirements as follows and submit applicable documentation:
 - a. A Family shall not be eligible for assistance unless every member of the Family residing in the unit is determined to have eligible status, with the exception noted herein.
 Exception: Despite eligibility of one or more Family members, a mixed Family (a family with one or more ineligible family members and one or more eligible family members) may be eligible for pro-rata assistance.
 - b. Applicants must submit documentation required by the Department of Housing and Urban Development at the time the application is submitted. Management will supply, to the Applicant, a list of acceptable documents to verify citizenship or immigration status. Applicants will be placed on the waiting list pending verification of immigration status. Upon receipt of the application, Management will verify documentation provided by non-citizens utilizing the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) Program. If eligible immigration status cannot be verified, Applicant will be removed from the waiting list and notified of the action.
 - c. If a noncitizen Applicant is waiting to receive appropriate documentation, Applicant must wait to submit a complete application for an apartment until the documentation is received. Management does not provide temporary deferrals for this requirement.
7. Each member of the household must provide a valid social security card (or other acceptable evidence of a Social Security Number). A household may be placed on the waiting list prior to providing an SSN for all non-exempt household members. In such cases, the applicant must submit verification of SSNs for all household members within 90 days from the date they are first offered an available unit. An extension of up to 90 days may be granted at management's discretion if the household can demonstrate a good faith effort to obtain the SSN(s).

8. Individuals who are students in institutions of higher learning will not be eligible for assistance unless the student is living with his or her parents or the individual is a student who:
 - i. Is 24 years old or older;
 - ii. Is a veteran of the U.S. military;
 - iii. Has dependent children;
 - iv. Is married;
 - v. Is a person with disabilities and was receiving Section 8 assistance as of November 30, 2005; or
 - vi. Is living with their parents, and the parents are also receiving Section 8 assistance.
 - a. Unless the student is living with his or her parents or 24 or older and has dependent child(ren), the calculation of annual income on which rent is calculated will include all financial aid (exclusive of loans) received in excess of tuition.
 - b. Section 8 Rental Assistance will not be prorated between eligible and ineligible students. If a household includes an ineligible student, the entire household is ineligible.
9. Each household member must provide consents for verification of all sources of income or other information relative to occupancy in the community.

ELIGIBILITY OF SINGLE PERSONS: Eligible Single Persons include those persons 18 years of age or older or a Single Person under 18 years of age who has been emancipated through marriage under Idaho law. Eligible single persons may not be offered a two-bedroom apartment except: (1) in situations requiring reasonable accommodation; (2) for an elderly person with a verifiable need for the larger apartment or (3) for a Displaced Person if there are no one-bedroom apartments available.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS: Anyone who wishes to secure housing must fully complete the application form provided by management. The information provided must contain enough information for management to make an initial determination of the income eligibility of the household; the size of unit desired or needed and sufficient information to screen Applicant's prior landlord history. Applicants must consent to management's requirement to secure a credit and criminal background history and must provide sufficient information to enable management to secure such reports. Incomplete applications will not be processed.

CHANGES IN INCOME OR FAMILY COMPOSITION FOR WAITING LIST APPLICANTS: If an Applicant's income changes to an amount which is no longer eligible under the limitations of the assistance program by the time the application reaches the top of the waiting list, written notice will be given advising the Applicant that: (1) they are not presently eligible for assistance under the Section 8 program; (2) the Applicant could become eligible if the household income decreases, the number of household members changes, the Income Limit changes, or HUD grants an exception to the Income Limits, and (3) asks whether or not the Applicant wishes to remain on the waiting list.

Households must report any decrease in their annual adjusted income that results in a cumulative decrease of 10% or more. The Owner will then conduct an interim recertification. Owners may, at their discretion, choose to set a lower threshold for reporting income decreases.

OCCUPANCY STANDARDS: Occupancy standards have been established to ensure that units are not overcrowded or underutilized. The number of occupants in a unit must be in accordance with the occupancy standards as set forth by The Housing Company based upon local law and Agency regulations. These occupancy standards are subject to change during the lease term if changes in laws, ordinances, or regulations make such changes necessary. The minimum occupancy limit will correspond to the number of bedrooms. The maximum occupancy limit will depend on local law and regulations, and the square footage of usable sleeping areas as defined by local law and suggested Agency guidelines. Notwithstanding the above, The Housing Company shall have the right to make reasonable accommodations for individuals with disabilities and may adjust occupancy limits to further the goal of providing reasonable accommodations. Minimum and maximum limits are as follows:

UNIT SIZE	MINIMUM	MAXIMUM

Generally, the presumptive standard is two (2) persons per bedroom. Household composition will be considered when applying this general rule.

DETERMINING UNIT SIZE AT MOVE-IN: The management agent must balance the need to avoid overcrowding with the need to make the best use of available space, and to avoid unnecessary subsidy. To determine how many bedrooms a Family may have, the management agent shall count:

1. all full-time members of the household;
2. children who are away at school but live with the Family during school recesses;
3. children who are subject to a joint custody agreement but live in the unit at least 50% of the time;
4. an unborn child or children who are in the process of being adopted or whose custody is being obtained by an adult;
5. foster children or children who are temporarily absent due to placement in a foster home;
6. live-in attendants; and
7. foster adults.

The management agent shall not provide bedroom space for persons who are not members of the household, such as adult children on active military duty, permanently institutionalized Family members, or visitors.

OVERCROWDED OR UNDER-UTILIZED UNITS: Units, which are smaller or larger than needed by the Applicant, may be assigned if doing so will not cause serious overcrowding. The action may not conflict with local codes and larger units than indicated by the number of household members may only be issued if no units of appropriate size are available. In such cases, the Family must agree to move to the correct sized unit, at its own expense, when one becomes available. After move-in, if a unit becomes overcrowded or under-used because of changes in household composition, the management agent will require the Family to move to an appropriate sized unit when one becomes available. If the resident refuses to move, the household must pay HUD-approved market rent to remain in the same unit. In such instances, transfers will take priority over any preference or Applicants on the waiting list.

PREFERENCES: Management will observe preferences listed below, prioritized in the order of the list:

Accommodation for Existing Residents: Requests for reasonable accommodation from existing residents requiring unit transfers will take priority over all waiting list Applicants. Accommodation results when a third-party-verified disability requires a change or repairs which make it easier for the existing resident to reside in the community. Reasonable costs associated with unit transfers or repairs will be covered by management, unless doing so will cause an undue financial and administrative burden.

Units Specifically Designed for Disabled or Handicapped Persons: When attempting to fill a unit that has features designed to meet the needs of disabled persons, management will grant a preference to households with Disabled members (who otherwise qualify) and need the accessible features of the unit. For example, units designed for accessibility to individuals with mobility, hearing or vision impairments, will be rented to households that require the features provided in those units. This preference will be granted upon proper notification by Applicant and verification of need by management.

Elderly Properties: Properties that are designed for the elderly must verify that the applicant household qualifies as an elderly household. An elderly household is one in which the head of household, spouse and/or co-head is 62 years of age or older, or disabled. A disabled person need not be 62 or older in order to qualify at certain properties designated for the elderly.

Extremely Low Income Households: Extremely Low Income Households, defined as households with income not exceeding 30% of the area median income (AMI) established by HUD and periodically updated, shall receive preference over households on the waiting list with incomes exceeding 30% AMI. Extremely Low Income Households will be selected from the waiting list in chronological order, and other eligible households will be housed after all Extremely Low Income Households on the waiting list have been housed. The Housing Company will continue to market units with efforts to reach the Extremely Low Income population. If there are no Extremely Low Income Households on the waiting list, other households will be housed in the order in which they have applied. This preference will be determined utilizing income stated on the application, but will be revoked at the discretion of management if Applicant has misstated income as determined by verification. The preference will be in place during the first six months of each calendar year or until such time during the year that the number of new move-ins rented to Extremely Low Income Households is equal to 40% of the average turn-over in the previous three years.

Transfers for Existing Tenants: No waiting list preference shall be granted to households seeking transfers (for reasons other than accommodation) between units in a specific apartment community or between apartment communities located within the same market area which are owned or managed by The Housing Company. Exceptions will be made for Emergency Transfers under VAWA. Other households seeking such transfers shall receive only chronological status on the waiting list.

PROCESSING STEPS: The development shall be rented and occupancy maintained on a first-come, first-served basis with preferences taken into consideration. All persons wishing to be admitted to the development or placed on the waiting list must complete an application and supply all documentation required. Prospective tenants submitting incomplete applications will not be considered for occupancy. The initial application shall be timed and dated when received, and the resident manager shall maintain at the rental office a chronological list of all Applicants (categorized on a bedroom size requirement). Applicants may be included on one or more waiting list, depending upon the needs of the Family and management's determination of overcrowding or under-utilization. Preference households and existing residents requiring unit transfers because of accommodation will move ahead of chronological status Applicants. Applicants shall be offered housing (after meeting all selection criteria requirements including the verification process), placed on the waiting list, or declined. Potentially eligible Applicants who have met tenant selection criteria, and for whom the right size unit is not available, will be placed on the waiting list and contacted when an appropriate unit becomes available. The Applicant must contact the development's resident manager every three (3) months to remain on the waiting list. Applicants who fail to provide acceptable landlord references, credit history, or who have a criminal background will be notified that they have been removed from the waiting list.

All Applicants will be provided with a copy of the Enterprise Income Verification brochure prior to move-in. The Housing Company utilizes EIV to determine if an applicant is receiving subsidy at another complex or through the Section 8 Voucher program. Each applicant's social security number will be used to run an "Existing Tenant Search" prior to move-in. Should other subsidy be discovered, the resident manager will work with the applicant to ensure that a dual subsidy situation does not occur. During tenancy, the EIV system will also be used to confirm that the tenant is not receiving subsidy elsewhere, and verify certain types of income, including social security, wages, and unemployment. It will also be monitored periodically to determine if a household member has obtained new employment during tenancy.

When an appropriate unit is available, the resident manager shall interview the Applicant; confirm and update all information on the application; update credit and criminal reports older than one year; obtain current information of income, expense, and family composition to certify eligibility and compute the resident's share of the rent. Verification of income and assets will follow the hierarchy required by HUD regulations. For households with total net assets below the statutory threshold (currently $50,000, subject to annual adjustment), applicants may be permitted to self-certify their assets at recertification as allowed by HUD guidance. However, third-party verification will be required at move-in and at least once every three years of tenancy. Each Applicant will be required to evidence citizenship and comply with the Social Security Disclosure Regulations, which means each Family member must supply their Social Security number and verification of the same. The Applicant shall be informed that a final decision on eligibility cannot be made until all verifications are complete.

Applicants, whose position on the waiting list enables application processing, will receive only two consecutive notices of housing availability. If the Applicant is unable or decides not to complete the application process, the Applicant shall be removed from the waiting list upon receiving the second notice and must reapply for eligibility.

OPENING & CLOSING THE WAITING LIST: The waiting list shall be updated every three months and may be closed for one or more unit sizes when the average wait for admission is excessive (e.g. one year or more). If the waiting list is closed, a notice will be published in the local newspaper, posted on our website and posted at the apartment community office. The same process will be followed when the waiting list is re-opened.

SCREENING CRITERIA: The following factors shall be considered in screening Applicant for occupancy:

1. Demonstrated ability to meet financial obligations and to pay rent on time.
2. History as a good resident.
3. History of disturbing neighbors or destroying property.
4. Applicant's credit history.
5. Ability to maintain (or with assistance would have the ability to maintain) the housing in a decent and safe condition based on living or housekeeping habits and whether such habits adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of the household and other residents in the community.
6. Ability to meet all obligations of tenancy.
7. Current use or history of using illegal drugs or current use or history of abusing alcohol in a way that may interfere with the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of others.

8. History of felony or misdemeanor convictions by any household member involving crimes of physical violence against persons or property, fraud, dishonesty and any other criminal activity including but not limited to Drug-Related Criminal Activity.
9. Any household member, including a Live-in Aide, has been evicted from assisted housing within three years as a result of Drug-Related Criminal Activity.
10. Any household member has Registered Sex Offender status, or is subject to a lifetime registration requirement under a state sex offender registration program.
11. Income Limit qualification.

Note: Live-In Aides will be screened for drug abuse and criminal activity, and must sign required release forms.

REFERENCES; CRIMINAL AND CREDIT HISTORY: Management will require consent of all adult household members and Live-In Aides for verification of references and permission to seek criminal background history.

Landlord References: Landlord references will be required for up to five (5) years, including the present landlord. Applicants, who have been previous homeowners, must be able to demonstrate that they have made mortgage payments in a timely manner.

Applicants, who have had no previous rental or homeownership history, must provide references from people they lived with during the last five years. Further, such Applicants must agree to monthly inspections of their apartment to continue until management deems that the Applicant is maintaining the apartment in a clean, safe and sanitary condition.

Unfavorable landlord or professional references may result in removal from the waiting list.

Credit History: Credit reports will be ordered for each Applicant. The credit report will be reviewed to determine the Applicant's history of meeting financial obligations including payments for rent, utilities, loans, revolving credit cards, and other obligations. Applicant's credit history must be acceptable to management before they will be approved to occupy a unit. The credit report will be reviewed to:

1. confirm current address;
2. confirm credit sources included on the application;
3. confirm current and past employment listed on the application; and
4. to determine whether the Applicant has an acceptable credit history.

Applicants, whose credit histories are unacceptable, will be declined and removed from the waiting list. An unacceptable credit history may include the following: past-due payments of more than 90 days; a history of repeated insufficient fund checks; derogatory credit (repossessions, foreclosures, judgments, collections, charge-offs, liens, bankruptcy not yet discharged, etc); delinquent or charge off debt due other apartment communities; or unpaid utility company collections which would prohibit applicant from obtaining services. The lack of credit history or past due payments or derogatory credit relating to medical expense or student loans will not be considered as grounds for declining an Applicant. Consideration will be granted when current credit history demonstrates a pattern of improvement; history of rent payment overshadows other debt issues or Applicant can demonstrate acceptable reasons for credit history. Applicants may wish to provide an explanation that evidences efforts to correct credit deficiencies through payment plans or other work out solutions. If such explanation is acceptable to management, further screening may be conducted and written confirmation of payment plans may be required from the creditor(s).

In the event of decline based upon credit, the Applicant has 14 days to provide an explanation and request further consideration. Management will provide a copy of Applicant's credit report upon request. It is the Applicant's responsibility to contact the credit-reporting agency to resolve any items that have been incorrectly reported.

Criminal Activity Reports:

A criminal activity report will be ordered for each Applicant, and an Applicant with a history that includes felonious crimes, serious misdemeanors, Drug-Related crimes, violent crimes, or sexual crimes will be declined and removed from the waiting list. Reports will be obtained from local and/or state records. Consideration may be granted to Applicants with past criminal records occurring five or more years in the past with no further criminal record. If the Applicant has resided in a state other than Idaho and has a past felony conviction, a report will be required from that state or federal organization. Applicants will be required to certify that they or members of their household are not Registered Sex Offenders. Registered Sex Offenders will not be admitted to the apartment community.

DECLINING APPLICANTS: Applicants may be declined if any one of the following categories applies:

1. Failure to meet one or more of the screening criteria.
2. Information required by the application and income verification process is not provided.

3. Failure to respond to written requests for information.
4. Declaration by Applicant that they are no longer interested in housing.
5. Unacceptable credit history.
6. Income exceeds the appropriate Very Low Income Family Income Limit (when dictated by Federal programmatic requirements).
7. Inability to appropriately maintain housing in a decent safe and sanitary condition.
8. Applicant is single, under 18 years of age and has never been emancipated through marriage under Idaho law.
9. Family size is too large for available units, and serious overcrowding would result in providing a smaller unit.
10. History of unjustified and chronic nonpayment of rent and financial obligations.
11. History of disturbing the quiet enjoyment of others.
12. A risk of intentional damage or destruction to the unit or surrounding premises by the Applicant or those under the Applicant's control.
13. History of violence and harassment of others.
14. History of violations of the terms of previous rental agreements such as destruction of a unit or failure to maintain a unit in a decent, safe, and sanitary condition.
15. Criminal history includes felony or misdemeanor convictions for Drug Related Activity, violent crimes, sexual crimes, physical violence against persons or property, fraud, dishonesty or any other criminal activity (excepting traffic violations) which, at the sole discretion of management, is deemed a risk to the well being of the community.
16. Illegally using a controlled substance or abusing alcohol in a way that may interfere with the health, safety and well being of other residents. Waiver of this requirement is subject to Applicant demonstrating they are no longer engaging in such activity and producing evidence of participation in or completion of a supervised rehabilitation program.
17. Applicant or a member of the household is a Registered Sex Offender under any state sex offender registration program.
18. Applicant or a household member has engaged in or threatened abusive or violent behavior towards any staff member of management or another resident.
19. Applicant or a member of household was evicted from housing within three years as a result of Drug-Related Criminal Activity.
20. Applicant, requesting rental assistance, does not meet the eligibility criteria when household members include students in institutions of higher education (any educational facility beyond K-12).
21. Application is incomplete, or is found to contain false information.
22. Appropriately sized housing is not and will not be available in the apartment community.

If an Applicant is declined, Applicant will be informed in writing with an explanation of the reasons for decline. The Applicant will be notified that they have 14 days to respond in writing or to request a meeting to discuss the decline. All declined applications and supportive documentation shall be maintained at the management agent's home office in a manner that assures confidentiality.

Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005: In accordance with the Act, admission to the apartment community will not be denied on the basis that the Applicant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking if Applicant otherwise qualifies for admission. Applicant may request protection under the Act by completing the Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence or Stalking (HUD form 5382) and Management will verify the certification as allowed by the Act.
